

Call for Consultancy

Seeking Specialists in Education, Child Rights and Protection, and Policy Development

CE International recently launched its Global Consultant Directory, and we hope that you will be interested in joining. The directory supports our mission of developing and amplifying innovative solutions to education challenges, which CE International pursues through our three Practice Areas: Transformative Leadership, Health & Wellbeing, and Rethinking Education. Our Practice Areas strategically address challenges at all levels of education, from the individual learner to the education systems supporting their learning.

As CE International expands its work in global education, the Global Consultant Directory will ensure the innovative solutions we develop and promote are supported by the most skilled and expert individuals around the world. Through the Global Consultant Directory, CE International looks forward to the opportunity to learn about you and your work, as well as the potential for future collaboration.

Consultants who register in our Global Consultant Directory can expect to be contacted by CE International for potential opportunities to collaborate on a variety of projects and proposals in the global education and international development sector, such as:

- Project proposals for USAID and other key funding organizations
- Professional development course creation and consultation
- Event participation, such as webinars, workshops, and livestreamed social media conversations
- Other opportunities to advance understanding of key topics in the education sector.

Required Technical Expertise, Skills, and Knowledge

We are looking for consultants with knowledge and experience in fields that align with our Practice Areas. Potential topics areas of interest include, but are not limited to, the following:

Examples:

- Child Protection and Safety
- Child Rights
- Inclusive Education
- Education in Emergencies
- Social Emotional Learning
- Child Stress and Trauma
- Education Leadership
- Innovative Leadership
- Girls Education
- Early Childhood Development
- Education Technology
- Early Childhood Program Quality

Furthermore, for each of the topic areas, we are looking for consultants who have:

- Graduate level educational background in education, international development, health, or a related field
- 5 or more years of professional experience in their area of expertise
- A commitment to children's rights to education and learning, child safety and protection, and innovative practices.

Directory Process

This directory is privately held by CE International and is for internal use by our organization only. When we have a project related to your area(s) of expertise, we may contact you to assist or advise us; you may be able to receive remuneration for providing such assistance. The scope of work, to include deliverables and timeline, for each consulting opportunity will depend on the specific project and will be defined before beginning the project.

No matter whether you are in a full-time position with an organization or serving as an independent consultant, you can be included in our directory. Please bear in mind, however, that we cannot guarantee that a listing in this directory will result in volunteer or paid work. CE International also recommends that you check with your employer before applying to join the CE International Global Consultant Directory if there is potential for a conflict of interest or need to disclose your consulting work.

How to Join

- Complete a short application that includes key information about you and your skills and experience, including your key areas of specialization. The application is not intended to be competitive, but to allow CE International the opportunity to ensure completeness of information and follow up with questions about your skills and experience if needed.
- CE International will review your application and contact you if further details are needed to complete your profile in the directory.
- CE International will also contact you to confirm when you have been added to the directory.

We would be honored if you would join our Global Consultant Directory and potentially work with us on future projects dedicated to advancing global education. We also request that you help grow our directory by sharing this Call with at least one colleague who fits the general profile for consultants. If you have any questions about the Global Consultant Directory, please reach out to Michelle Allen at mallen@ceinternational1892.org.

Sincerely,
