

CHILDHOOD EDUCATION INNOVATIONS

Childhood Education: Innovations provides unique, stimulating information about educational programs around the world. Articles explore solutions to specific challenges affecting schools, teachers, and learners, and showcase the most recent innovations being developed and implemented to address those challenges.

Articles planned for the September/October 2024 issue:

- The World in a Box: Looma Meets the Nepalese Challenge
Looma is an innovative, complete education system that delivers a modern education for everyone, especially for those without reliable electricity, internet, textbooks, or trained teachers.
- Unleashing Creativity in the Classroom: The Power of Arts Integration
Arts integration makes learning meaningful. It helps students reach academic goals at a high level, build self-confidence, and increase cooperation and collaboration.
- Fútbol Más: How Sport Can Transform School Realities
Through this intervention, social worker professionals and physical education professionals promote life skills and build resilience.
- Transformative Literacy Proficiency
From a foundation of competence-based learning and social-emotional learning, ReachAll in Zambia developed a transformative, inclusive educational framework that builds and improves essential abilities and competencies in learners.
- A New Column Focusing on Teachers as a Keystone Actor in the Education Ecosystem
This new column will highlight teacher learning and leadership, alongside their wellbeing and innovation.
- Unlocking How Students Learn to Learn: Reshaping Instruction to Foster Learner Agency
In environments where teachers and students prioritize learner agency, students actively engage in and take ownership of their learning.
- Effective Learning Through Wellbeing: Co-Creating Social-Emotional Learning in India
Labhya has pioneered the wellbeing movement in India, enabling vulnerable children to tackle poverty and become effective learners.
- Accelerating Parental Agency for Learning at the Margins
The Zizi Afrique Foundation explores the potential impact of parental engagement and empowerment in accelerating learning achievement.
- Let Nature Be Your Teacher
This project combined the power of literature and the passion for nature and thereby encouraged students to spend more time outdoors.
- The Happiest Preschool: Transforming Early Childhood Education
A child's relationship with a teacher is the most important determinant of the quality of social-emotional learning, because social-emotional learning occurs most comprehensively by imitation.

CE International and the authors reserve the right to postpone or cancel articles, if deemed necessary.

Become a Global Friend and access the publication today: <https://ceinternational1892.org/globalfriends>